Post Event Summary Report

The students of the Department of English, GCWUS , opened the doors to the graphic world of literature bringing forth for the first time the event 'Comic Con'. The ceremony began with the arrival of the Chief Guest, Vice Chancellor (Prof. Dr. Rukhsana Kausar) and other distinguished guests including Dean of Social Sciences (Dr. Afzal Butt), Dean of Natural Sciences (Dr. Zareen Fatima Rizvi), Dean of Management Sciences (Dr. Muhammad Ilyas) along with reputable Department Heads/ In-Charges to name a few. After the exchange of pleasantries, the ribbon was cut and so began the wonderful exhibition. To all where the sight could reach flags, cut outs, models and stalls fully embodied the theme of 'Comic Con'. After recitation of the Holy Quran, a montage of highlights was displayed to credit the facilitators, organizers and the creative outputs. The supervisors Dr. Muhammad Shahbaz (Head of Department, English), Dr. Rashid Hafeez and Madam Shahida Parveen served as a constant support for the students.

The event not only carried translated books but also the display of an audio/video book (Garfield) and trailer of a dubbed movie (Breadwinner) presented to the audience via multimedia. This was followed by the costumed characters walking down the ramp showcasing a glimpse of their projects. The event reached its final act with an enactment of a comic series (W.i.t.c.h) aided by onscreen animation. After the commencement of the act the worthy Vice Chancellor was requested to say a few words of acknowledgement to the students and concluded the event with the cake cutting ceremony. Finally, the Vice Chancellor and other guests moved to all the 21 individual display stalls appreciating the innovative and creative display by of the students.

The Vice Chancellor appreciated the projects and underscored the need to encourage the students further so that they could realize their potential to the optimum level.
